

Sexual Health Snapshot

SOMERSET COUNTY TEENS

50% of all new sexually transmitted infections (STIs) in the U.S. each year are in teens and young adults¹

67 cases of chlamydia
18 cases of gonorrhea
in Somerset County teens²

Most STIs have no symptoms and without treatment can cause serious health problems

Somerset County high school students who reported ever having sex³

Having an STI increases the risk of getting HIV

Somerset County high school students who reported drinking alcohol or using drugs the last time they had sex³

Alcohol and drug use may impair decision-making about having sex, condom use and consent of Somerset County high school students reported using a condom the last time they had sex³

41%

17 births
to Somerset County teens⁴

Talk to your doctor or county health department about STI testing and treatment

Teens: ages 15-19; Young Adults: ages 20-24

Data sources:

- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 2018
- Maryland Department of Health, Center for STI Prevention, 2018
- Maryland Department of Health, Youth Risk Behavior Survey, 2018
- Maryland Department of Health, Vital Statistics Administration, 2018

To learn more, visit: <http://bit.ly/STIPrevention>

March 2020